Could you set this up for 11am each day?

Team –

Can everyone get on the phone at 1PM ET/11AM MT for a press check in? HQ talked to Paula this morning about the group getting on a call every morning to make sure we know what the day's major announcement will be, get prepared for questions for the afternoon's media call, make sure the website is squared away. We can also walk through the operator assisted media call this afternoon to make sure Paula is ready to manage the queue.

Let me know if this time doesn't work. I'll send around a calendar invite shortly. Please make sure the appropriate people from your region are invited to the call, since I'm sure I'm leaving folks off.

Thanks.
